

People using aged care

2018-19

The majority of people using aged care were using home support

2 in 3 people in aged care were women

Around 70% of people in aged care were in a major city

The number of people in residential care and home care has increased by 42% over the last decade

2009	203,000
2014	234,000
2019	289,000

Around 1 in 3 people in residential aged care were born overseas

Only 1% of people in residential aged care identified as Aboriginal or Torres Strait Islander

